7:30 P.M. - FEATURE SCREENING

at

WARNER GRAND THEATRE
478 West 6th Street (at Pacific)
San Pedro, CA 90731

Rarely displayed in a theatrical setting, a 35mm print of the 1941 Warner Bros. film, The Maltese Falcon starring Humphrey Bogart, will be shown on the historic Warner Grand Theatre's 30 by 50 foot screen courtesy of Warner Bros. Classics. Preceding the film will be a presentation by Dashiell Hammett's granddaughter, JULIE RIVETT, and noted Hammett scholar and biographer DR. RICHARD LAYMAN, who will provide a behind-the-scenes introduction of the making of the film, and discuss relationships between Dashiell Hammett, John Huston, and Humphrey Bogart. In addition, film shorts from students in the Sony Pictures Media Arts Program and DCA's Canoga Park Youth Arts Center will be shown.

Ages: All

Information: Please visit the theater website at www.warnergrand.org.

Cost: Tickets are $10 for general admission, and $5 for seniors over 60 and for students with valid identification. Tickets can be purchased online at www.warnergrand.org, or in person at the theater Box Office, beginning at 5 p.m. on November 22.
